DUTIES OF THE POSITION

Under the direction of Dr. Claudia Luke and Education Manager Suzanne DeCoursey, the student will serve as the graduate assistant for SSU's Center for Environmental Inquiry Naturalist Program. The graduate assistant will oversee natural and cultural history training to undergraduate naturalists during designated sessions at SSU's Fairfield Osborn Preserve. Training materials and orientation will be provided; the graduate assistant will attend orientation meetings as their schedule permits. In conjunction with the Education Manager, the graduate assistant will help assess naturalists' readiness to lead tours of the Osborn Preserve for 3rd - 5th graders and members of the general public. The graduate student communicates with K-12 teachers about scheduling pre-field trip classroom visits. On designated school visit days at the Osborn Preserve, the graduate student orients participants, organizes naturalist groups, and responds to inquiries. The graduate assistant will help provide feedback regarding training materials and logistics.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

Knowledge of the subject matter of the discipline in which assigned. Ability to relate well to others within the academic environment; ability to supervise, assist and train students; and ability to assist faculty in the conduct of special projects or research within the discipline. For initial appointment, evidence of satisfactory achievement in previous academic work; for the subsequent appointments, evidence of satisfactory progress toward completion of degree. Education equivalent to completion of the requirements for a bachelor's degree and registration in a University graduate degree program; students enrolled in credential programs are not eligible for this position. NOTE: Exceptions to the minimum eligibility qualifications may be granted at the sole discretion of the University.
